Lutherans Will Note 'Birthday'

The sixth anniversary of the organization of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Twenty-eighth and Quincy, said the Rev. Harold Brauer, pastor, will be observed Sunday, when all of its members are invited to attend a fellowship gathering to be held in the basement of the church at five p.m.

The observance will consist of a fellowship meal, arranged by Mrs. J. Beck, Mrs. A. F. Pasch and Mrs. L. T. Rusch, and a program of home talent, arranged by representatives from each of the church's organizations. On the program committee are J. Beck of the Voters assembly, Mrs. A. Blanken of the Women's league, Mrs. I. Mohlin of the Fellowship club, and Boyd Degen of the Walther league. Pastor Brauer has been asked to serve as master of ceremonies.

St. Paul's was formally organized into a congregation with its own officers in January, 1942, although services were conducted in Ogden 10 years previous to that date. The congregation has purchased a parsonage, which last summer was made a home for the principal of its school; built a church, which was dedicated in July, 1943; opened a Christian day school in September, 1945, which now has an enrollment of 49 pupils with two teachers; and is at present constructing a new parsonage back of the church, which it hopes to have ready for occupancy about March 1.

Church Presents Movie Tonight

"Can you imagine an entertaining movie in which a Christian pastor is the hero or expect tense drama in a film without pistol shots or a home wrecker? Both of these effects are magnificently achieved, however, in the full length sound picture 'Messenger of Peace,'" stated Pastor Harold Brauer of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Twenty-eighth and Quincy, in announcing the showing of this film in his church tonight at seven-thirty o'clock. The public is invited.

The pastor went on to say: "The story of Pastor Armin Ritter, as told in the film, contradicts the common impression that the preachers are impractical men,

Miss Dorothy Mae Schieven Weds Paul D. Vernieu

On July 22, Miss Dorothy Mae Schieven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Schieven, 2639 Jefferson, became the bride of Paul Dee Vernieu, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Vernieu, in St. Paul's Lutheran church, with the Rev. Harold Brauer officiating. A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernieu. The church was decorated with ferns and candelabra and the home was also adorned with flowers.

Mrs. Vernieu wore a white marquisette lace gown over heavy taffeta, fashioned with long sleeves with extreme fullness above the elbow. The waist was a tight fitting bodice, and the skirt ended in a train. Her fingertip veil was of bride's illusion net which fell from a Juliet beaded cap.

She carried a white prayer book with white orchids and satin streamers from which small bells were hung.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Sneddon of Ft. Collins, Colo., wore an ice blue gown with off the shoulder rline, fitted bodice and circular skirt. Tallisman roses were in her hair and she carried a matching bouquet. The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothea Dalton and Miss Joan Vernieu, sister of the bridegroom, wore dusty pink gowns, fashioned the same as the matron's, and carried American beauty roses. All had matching gloves.

Vicki Vernieu, niece of the groom, was flower girl and was dressed in pale blue dotted swiss and carried a decorated basket of rose petals.

The mother of the bride wore a pale aqua gown with navy blue accessories, and the groom's mother was dressed in blue crepe print with white accessories.

Best man was John T. Vernieu, brother of the bridegroom and ushers were Richard T. Vernieu, also a brother, and Wayne C. Wilcox.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. W. C. Wilcox, Mrs. R. T. Vernieu, Miss Jean Richardson, Miss Shirley Pickett, and Miss Barbara Vernieu.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Peterson, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, from Sheboygan, Wis., and Miss Leonore Graslle, Hammond, Wis.

Following a trip to Las Vegas and southern California, they are now at home at 1072 Twenty-eighth.

Complaint Asked By Police in Burglary Arrest

Weber county attorney's office has been asked to file a second degree burglary complaint against Robert L. McCoy, 27, of 208 1/2 Twenty-fifth, Police Lt. D. B. Ballantyne said today in connection with the burglary Aug. 22 of three residences.

The officer said police had recovered nearly all items reported stolen. All have been returned to owners except a few being retained for evidence, Ballantyne said.

Three additional suspects were picked up during the week and released after police failed to get enough evidence to connect them with the crimes.

Homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tams, 627 Twenty-eighth; C. C. Critchlow, 2723 Jefferson, and the Rev. Harold Brauer, 915 Twenty-eighth, were listed in connection with the case. The loot ranged from white shirts to an alarm clock, police said. The suspect was arrested in a vacant lot near Twenty-eighth by Detective Jack P. Biddulph and Patrolman V. R. Butcher.

Burglary of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Taylor, 162 Thirty-fifth, Aug. 21, was apparently staged by juveniles, Lt. Ballantyne said. Stolen was $88 in cash, taken from a buffet drawer, from a wallet and from a baby's bank.

Day Observed Quietly, but In Keeping With Tradition

CLEARFIELD—In an address prepared for delivery today in the Clearfield Community church, scene of the annual union Thanksgiving service of the Protestant churches of Ogden area the Rev. Lloyd Newton, pastor of the Ogden Christian church used for his theme: "Be Ye Thankful." Mr. Newton said:

"There were no fog horns or boat whistles to welcome the Pilgrim fathers to our shores in 1620. It was a bleak, desolate, rock-bound shore their eyes rested upon that day more than three centuries ago.

"It was different the other day in New York, when 813 displaced persons, "delayed Pilgrims" from Europe, docked at pier 81 on the Hudson river and were greeted by more than 1000 enthusiastic Americans in a noisy welcome.

Welcome Extended

"Attorney General Tom Clark extended the formal welcome to the group in behalf of President Truman. He said, 'The president greets you, as the Pilgrims of 1948, entering this gateway of freedom. As did the Pilgrims of 1620, you came here to escape persecution. The president wants to point out the fact that in America we consider differences of religious faiths and national origins as an element of strength rather than weakness, and urges you not to think of yourselves as strangers.'

Thanksgiving Day—or Harvest Festival — was being observed quietly today in Ogden.

A light snowfall covered the city with a white blanket. Most people remained in their homes during the morning. Families gathered for a traditional turkey dinner at noon or early afternoon.

Special services were held at St. Joseph Catholic church, the Episcopal church of the Good Shepherd, St. Paul's Lutheran church. The service at St. Joseph's included a Missa Cantata sung by the pastor, Monsignor P. F. Kennedy. Music for the special mass was given by the parochial school choir under the direction of Sister M. Evelyn.

The Rev. J. Burton Salter, rector, conducted the service at the Episcopal church, which was decorated with the offerings of fruit brought by the members. Music was furnished by the junior choir under leadership of Miss Dorothy Radle and the adult choir directed by Mrs. Helen Harris. The theme of the sermon by the rector was "Think and Thank."

Fruit to "San" Patients

After the service, the Altar guild, under direction of Mrs. Harmon Barton, took the offerings of fruit to the Utah tuberculosis sanatorium.

"On that boat was Victor Fedai, a young White Russian, who had been asked to reply to the welcoming speeches. He had worked hard at the task of writing the message as the ship sped westward across the Atlantic. It was to be the greatest moment of his life. How could he put into words the gratitude of this first group of displaced persons as they came in sight of the Statue of Liberty and the land of freedom.

"Perhaps nobody will ever know what he intended to say, for when the time came for him to speak his eyes swam in tears and the letters ran together until he was unable to read a word of his speech. Finally he recovered from the grip of his emotions long enough to stammer out: 'This is the miracle of our second birth. We have come here to enjoy democracy and freedom.'

"Do not we all need the 'miracle' of a second birth, reborn into a new appreciation of what America means to us and to the world?"

"A Thankful Heart" was the message delivered by the Rev. Harold Brauer at the St. Paul's Thanksgiving service. Special appropriate music was given by the church choir.

For the first time in many years the Union Thanksgiving day service sponsored by the Ogden Ministerial association, was held out of the city. This special service was held at the Clearfield Community church and included sermon by the Rev. Lloyd Newton pastor of the Ogden First Christian church.

Inmates of the Ogden city and Weber county jails, although not privileged to associate with their families and friends on this great day, were not forgotten. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served to these unfortunates who enjoyed the bounteous feast.

The seventy inmates at the Weber county infirmary at Roy and the twelve employes at the institution, were served the traditional turkey dinner, with pumpkin pie and cranberries. A group of young people entertained with a musical program following the dinner.

At State Schools

The 127 students at the State Industrial school were given a hay wagon ride during the morning. Dinner and a marshmallow roast at the Abbott cottage featured the afternoon, followed by a matinee dance.

Early State Papers

Mr. Newton added: "Our forefathers were God-fearing men. The early state papers all gave honor to the God of the universe. The Declaration of Independence of 1776 begins and closes with God. Our great national hymns show forth our early firm belief in God. Every coin in our pocket is a silent testimony of the 'faith of our fathers'. The early life of our nation centered around the church. The bible was the center of the home life. Since that time, 172 years have passed and conditions have changed. Now at the present hour many nations are in the throes of life and death struggle for their freedom. The world stands on the threshold of the 'Twilight or Dawn' of atomic living."

Eighteen students at the State School for the Deaf and Blind, who were unable to spend the holiday at their homes, owing to great distance, enjoyed a turkey dinner and other entertainment features. The larger group who were fortunate enough to visit their families will return to resume their studies on Monday.

With the exception of 15 patients, described as being in the ambulant or pre-discharge stage, patients at the State Tuberculosis sanatorium were served a turkey dinner. The other 15 were given the privilege of visiting their homes.

Passengers traveling on the transcontinental railroads during the holiday season are given the choice of a Thanksgiving day menu by the dining car services.
