St. John's Church to Present Messenger of Peace Movie

"Messenger of Peace" a full-length sound movie, presenting the heart-warming adventures of Pastor Armin Ritter in the Hills, where "God was only a name" will be shown in St. John's church, First North and First East in Logan next Tuesday, January 20 at 7:30 p.m., sponsored by Calvary Lutheran Congregation in Logan. In the cast of "Messenger of Peace" will be recognized a number of Hollywood's capable character actors. John Trent who plays the part of Pastor Ritter, is well known. Paul Galtieffe who portrays drunken Peter Keel has appeared in scores of major productions. Mrs. Adeline DeWalt Reynolds, 53 years old, the Grandmother of "Messenger of Peace" will be remembered for her similar role in "Going My Way."

"Messenger of Peace" was made by Roland Reed Productions, Inc. and was filmed at the BKO-Pathe Studios. Produced by the Lutheran Laymen's League — the same organization which sponsors the International Lutheran Hour over the radio, the casting and filming were carefully supervised by Christian clergymen and laymen to assure a picture authentic to every scene and conforming to the highest standards of Christian entertainment.

"Messenger of Peace" is the portrayal of the drama and human interest in the everyday life of a Christian pastor, presenting him helping to solve the personal, family, and community problems of his flock. It is a 15-minute movie which the whole family will enjoy.

There is no admission charge to see this movie. But at the close a free will offering will be received to help defray the expenses of bringing this movie to Logan, stated Rev. Harold Brauer, pastor of Calvary Lutheran congregation. "The showing of this movie will take the place of the regular weekly church service, held each Tuesday at the same address."

The public is invited to see this inspiring movie, "Messenger of Peace," concluded the pastor.
