Famed Choir Will Appear In Ogden Concert Feb. 17

St. Olaf Lutheran choir, a highly praised group of 60 selected voices, will appear at the Ogden high school auditorium Thursday, February 17, at eight p. m., under the sponsorship of the local St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Tickets are available at Glen Brothers music store, Dunkley music store, J. C. Penney company and Reliable Furniture company.

This organization, composed of students from St. Olaf college, of Northfield, Minn., has won plaudits from the leading newspapers in cities across the nation during repeated tours, according to Pastor Harold Brauer.

The choir was founded by Dr. F. Melius Christensen after he returned from studying under Gustav Shreck at the University of Leipzig, Germany. In 1943 he was succeeded by his son, Olaf C. Christensen, the present director.

According to Mr. Brauer, hundreds of applicants compete for the few vacancies on the choir when college opens each September. Only near-flawless voices are selected, he stated.

Music Critic Herman Devries of the Chicago Herald-Examiner, describes them thus: "It is a group of young people, all of them letter perfect, pitch-perfect, tone-perfect, text-perfect, in the most difficult choral music, singing absolutely from memory and without accompaniment."

"Their director gets effects unlike those of any other like organization heard in these parts. . . . For the benefit of those who have never heard this choir, let me repeat that it is the greatest of its kind in America, perhaps in the world."

Choir to Appear At Ogden High

Pauline Seim

Pauline Seim is contralto soloist with the St. Olaf choir which will appear at the Ogden high school auditorium Thursday, February 17, at eight p. m. under the sponsorship of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

For 38 years the St. Olaf choir has made annual tours of the United States in the interest of better church music. As the pioneer a capella choir in America this choral organization has inspired many other similar organizations throughout the country, a statement said.

During the last 22 years it has appeared annually in joint concert with the Minneapolis symphony orchestra, according to Pastor Harold Brauer.

Glenn L. Hanson, head of the music department of Ogden high school and director of the Ogden symphonic choir, said: "Music lovers and concert goers of Ogden will be privileged to hear one of the truly great a capella choirs of the country with the appearance of the famous St. Olaf choir. This outstanding choral musical organization will afford all of us a rare treat indeed."

The choir is from Northfield, Minn., and tickets for the Ogden appearance of the organization are on sale at Glen Brothers Music company, Dunkley music store, J. C. Penney company and Reliable Furniture company.

Visitor Praises T. B. Sanatorium

Utah tuberculosis sanatorium was described as exceptionally well equipped and efficiently managed by the superintendent of a church-operated T. B. sanatorium at Wheat Ridge, Colo.

The Rev. E. J. Friedrich, D.D., here to attend a meeting of Lutheran church officials Monday, was conducted through the local institution accompanied by the Rev. Harold Brauer, pastor of an Ogden Lutheran church.

Dr. Friedrich's sanatorium is a 110-bed institution financed by the youth organization of the Lutheran church. Wheat Ridge is a suburb of Denver.

He expressed himself as being favorably impressed with the modernity and beautiful location of the Ogden sanatorium. Some state-operated sanatoriums are far behind the times in curative techniques, he noted.

Wisconsin Pulpit Taken; Final Services Dated

Rev. Harold Brauer
Wheat Studio

Next Sunday, the Rev. Harold Brauer will conduct his last services as pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Twenty-eighth and Quincy, and Trinity Lutheran church, Layton. Early next week he will leave Ogden to take charge of St. Mark's Lutheran church, a larger pastorate, in Symas, Hanpara county, Wisconsin.

Mr. Brauer came to Ogden late in November, 1944, to take charge of the local pastorate. Various progressive steps were taken by the local church during his four and one-half years of leadership, in addition to the 115 adults received into membership and 110 children received by the sacrament of baptism.

Day School Opened

In September, 1945, a Christian day school was opened and has since then been conducted in the basement of the church. Two years later the school was enlarged to two classrooms with two teachers. The present enrollment is 53 pupils. The teachers are O. F. Suetter, principal, and Miss Lois Herrellers, primary teacher.

In June, 1946, the first vacation Bible school was conducted by the church. Since then a similar school has been held each summer. Another is planned for this year in the first two weeks in June.

In September of 1947, construction of a parsonage at the rear of the church was begun. It was ready for occupancy early in March of 1949.

Mr. Brauer also conducted services in Layton for about eight months in 1945. When the need for separate services in this area again became apparent, they were begun in 1948. By November of the same year, a congregation of sufficient size had been gathered to warrant organization of the Trinity Lutheran church.

Logan Activities

Also since January, 1947, Mr. Brauer has been conducting a weekly radio program and church service for Calvary Lutheran church of Logan. During his period of service there the attendance and membership has doubled. A resident pastor is now being called for the Layton church.

When a group of German prisoners-of-war was interned at Hill air force base in the early part of 1946, Mr. Brauer was asked to serve them with weekly church services in their language. This continued for about four months.

Since September, 1945, Mr. Brauer has also been serving as visitor for the Utah circuit of the church district of the Lutheran church Missouri synod. In this capacity he supervised all the congregations and missions of the state.

In civic affairs he assisted with several Red Cross drives and was a member of the Ogden Kiwanis club.

Sunday's Events

On Sunday, Mr. Brauer will conduct two Easter services in St. Paul's Lutheran church, the first a sunrise service at seven a. m., and the second the regular service at eleven a. m.

The concluding service for Trinity Lutheran church in Layton, will be held at nine-fifteen a. m.

Anyone is invited to attend any of these services, said the pastor.
